A pixelated illustration of a ship's deck. The background is a solid yellow color. In the center, the text "ADV ICE" is written in a white, monospace font. Below it, "K. TANY" is written in the same font. The ship's deck is shown in shades of brown and tan. On the left and right sides, there are two gun turrets. In the center, there are two circular objects, possibly lifebuoys or portholes, each with a white cross on a dark background. To the right, there is a tall, thin structure, possibly a mast or a tower. The overall style is reminiscent of early computer graphics or video game sprites.
