Shenmue Introduction

Year 1986, Yokosuka, Japan.

An unexpected visitor brings chaos into the previously peaceful life of Ryo Hazuki, age 18.

A mysterious man in traditional Chinese clothes appears amidst the company of shady individuals in black.

His fighting style is unlike anything Ryo had ever seen before, and his strength is overwhelming.

Ryo's father Iwao engages this fearsome opponent in combat. Seeing that his father is about to lose, Ryo joins the fray, but he is no match for the stranger.

He is defeated. The man approaches Iwao.

"Where's the mirror?" he demands.

Iwao has no choice but to tell him.

Once the man obtains what he had come for, he turns to Iwao again.

"You haven't forgotten Sunming Zhao, have you?"

Iwao would not meet his eyes nor say a word. The man continues talking. He speaks of Iwao's crimes from a past that Ryo had been ignorant to.

Did his father really kill someone...?

Iwao does not say a word. The man strikes him down.

Ryo runs to his father's side and tries to help him up, but Iwao is about to breathe his last.

"Lan Di..." he whispers.

The man called Lan Di leaves. What sticks in Ryo's mind is an ornately embroidered dragon on the back of his jacket.

What was the mirror Lan Di came for?

Who is he, and what was his connection to Iwao?

Swearing to avenge his father, Ryo sets out on a journey seeking answers to these questions.

Shenmue II Introduction

In Yokosuka, Ryo tries to track down Lan Di but has no clues as to his whereabouts.

However, a letter addressed to his father comes into his possession.

The letter sent by Yuanda Zhu warns Iwao of danger and advises him to contact Yaowen Chen just in case.

Ryo finds out how to contact Chen and goes to meet him.

From him he learns that Lan Di is a high-ranking member of a Chinese crime syndicate called Chi You Men.

He is also told that the stolen mirror was one of a pair.

Ryo finds out that the other mirror is known as the Phoenix Mirror, and that Lan Di is in Hong Kong.

Ryo decides to head there.

Hong Kong - a bustling, crowded city.

An introduction letter from Chen in hand, Ryo searches for Hanhui Liu who is said to know where Yuanda Zhu is.

Alas, Ryo lets his guard down and is robbed of his belongings by a local gang.

Joy, an influential lady, comes to Ryo's aid, helping him find a place to stay. He continues his search for Liu and Zhu while taking on various jobs to pay for his accommodation.

And that is barely the beginning of his Chinese adventure.
