Wipe Out Slime and Smogulans!

Smogulans, the worst polluters in the universe, have busted through the ozone layer! Now they're trying to take over the Earth!

They've sent an army of Radiation Rangers to annihilate the Toxic Crusaders with fighter choppers, radioactive gunk and barrels of nuclear slime. Toxie and his pals have a heap of fighting on their hands!

Clean-freak Toxie incinerates the scum patrol with laser blasts. Never one to leave litter around, he scours up the mess with his mop and the help of his pal Bloobie.

NoZone, the beak-faced crusader, has class — er, make that crass. He spits hot blobs (and can this guy aim!) and speeds around on his wheelie foot. One mule-kick from this bird decorates the slime spreaders with tread marks before they croak.

Junkyard thrives on punching out polluters, spin jumping and licking up the leftover sludge. He really takes the bite out of grime!

The superheroes are in for non-stop combat, especially when they board the Smogulan mothership. Hold your breath (and your nose) when the Toxic Crusaders take their down and dirty war to the most poisonous planet in outer space!

Gone Fission!

Your mission is to exterminate the worthless but powerful scum aliens who want to poison the Earth with tons of radioactive rubbish. Watch the gauges at the bottom of the screen to keep tabs on your condition.

Life Gauge Energy Bar Score

Life Gauge:

You start with 3 lives. You gain extra lives by picking up Life Power-Ups. You lose a life if your Energy Bar drains completely. The game ends when you lose your last life. If you have Continues left, press Start before the counter reaches 0 to jump back into battle.

Energy Bar:

Energy drains from the bar every time you get hit. Restore the bar by picking up Energy Power-Ups, or by cleaning up the mess left by an incinerated enemy. If the bar drains empty, you lose 1 life.

Score:

This counter keeps track of your current points for bashing enemies and picking up Power-Ups.

Note: Two indicator bars appear in 2 Player games. Toxie's is the top bar, and NoZone's or Junkyard's bar is below it.

Power-Ups

Disintegrated enemies and smashed barrels release Power-Ups. Pick these up for the power you need to face the onslaught of Smogulan attackers!

- Green and black Power-Ups give you an extra life. You can't get enough of these.
- Green and red Power-ups let you whirl like an atomic blender when you press the Shoot 1 button.
- Green and blue Power-Ups put you on speedy in-line skates.
- Green and yellow Power-Ups give you the Golf Ball Attack ability.
- Green and white Power-Ups are good for Fist Attacks.
- Green and gray Power-Ups give you bonus points.

In some levels, like Tromaville and Water, Power-Ups may vary to fit the different vehicles you can use to clean up!

Tromaville and Beyond

Level 1: Tromaville Street

Gangs of Radiation Rangers pull a surprise attack on Tromaville's main drag, just when you're trying to get in some board time.

Combat would be a lot easier if it wasn't for that Sunday driver! Bust open barrels of gunk for extra Power-Ups. Down the helicopter, then climb aboard to give 'em back a taste of their own air-to-ground medicine. Follow the arrows to keep headed in the right direction. Wage war through the Tromaville streets and into the park, where you innocently run for cover straight into the Smogulan spacecraft!

Level 2: Smogulan Ship

Bash and blast past (or through) the droids and Rangers that man the alien mothership. Ride the lifts to move farther into the main engine room. Don't spend too much time in one spot or the plunging pistons will crush you. You'll reach Free Fall, a low-gravity area where you'll do the slow-floating combat shuffle.

Level 3: Smogula Spaceport

Welcome to radioactive Smogula, where the fallout level is higher than the population. You'll have to go through customs, which on this planet means running a gamut of rolling conveyor belts over pools of poison while battling the unfriendly natives. Some vacation spot!

Level 4: Across the Water

Speed a surf board through a noxious river of steaming sewage. Rapid-fire your machine gun, cutting down an armada of Radiation Rangers, poisonous flying fish, submarines and Smogulan swimmers. Don't forget to take in the scenery, a pulsating panorama of smoking chemical plants and nuclear reactors. This time, pal, the choke's on you!

Level 5: Smogulaville

Just try to get through the oozing streets and sewers of the capital without getting sludge on your shoes! Slave-Apes, brain-controlled guards of the Smogula Safety Patrol, make havoc out of your city stroll.

Leap across the broken piers, wobble on floating garbage, dodge or blast the scum vultures and watch out for the Green Grip of Death!

Level 6: Czar Zoster's Palace

Face your final fight in the slippery palace halls of Czar Zoster, the head cheese of all Smogula and its trash-dump satellites. This is your last chance to save the world!
