

FOOTBALL MANAGER MOBILE 2016

Available for iOS and Android devices

Formerly known as Football Manager Handheld, Football Manager Mobile 2016 is the simplest and quickest way to manage your chosen club to glory. Compatible with almost all smartphones and tablets, Football Manager Mobile is designed to be played in short bursts on the move, with a focus on tactics and transfers.

Football Manager Mobile 2016 delivers many new and improved features over previous iOS and Android releases in the series.

FOOTBALL MANAGER MOBILE 2016 – KEY FEATURES

Enhanced Tactics

Take greater control of your squad with the introduction of new tactical instructions. You can choose where your team concentrates its passing, as well as selecting your main attacking threat and creative outlet – and even advise your goalkeeper on distribution.

Coaching Staff

Prepare your squad for match days better than ever before with the addition of coaches, providing your team with focused training to prepare for their next big fixture.

Management Style

The introduction of gold, silver and bronze coaching badges allows you to define your own management style. Will you concentrate on improving your defence or attack, or focus on morale and man management? Your decision will influence your team's style.

Improved Screens

Redesigns to key screens makes Football Manager Mobile 2016 more intuitive than ever, while the improved news screen makes it easier than ever to take in all the information you need.

Player Loans

Develop newly-signed younger players by loaning them back to their previous club so that they can continue to gain first team experience.

First Window Transfer Parity

Managers who want to start a new career with largely unchanged squads across their entire game world can choose to enable the 'no budgets in first transfer window' option, allowing only free transfers to take place.

Football Manager Mobile 2016, developed by Sports Interactive and published by SEGA® Europe Ltd., will be available on the App Store and Google Play before Xmas 2015. Further details will be revealed over the coming weeks via Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.
